ORAL JUDGEMENT

(Per : MR.JUSTICE Y.B.BHATT)

1. Appeal admitted. Mrs. Yamini Desai waives service for respondent nos.1, 2 and 3-original claimants.

2. On a joint request of learned counsel for the respective parties, this appeal is taken up for final hearing today.

3. This is an appeal under section 173 of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 at the instance of the Insurance Company, challenging the judgement and award of the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Junagadh, given under section 163-A of the Motor Vehicles Act (as amended in 1994). The appellant-insurer contends that the impugned award under section 163-A has been delivered by the Tribunal as an interim award by passing the same as an order at Exh.6 in the main claim petition No.530/99, which has been filed under section 166 of the Motor Vehicles Act, and which is yet pending. The impugned judgement and award under section 163-A (at Exh.6) is numbered as Application No.15/99 in the aforesaid main claim petition.

4. The contention raised in this regard is that an award under section 163-A cannot be regarded to be an interim award nor can it be regarded to be subject to adjustment against an award that may be passed in a petition filed under Section 166 of the Act.

5. This is a contention which we are bound to accept in view of the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of The Oriental Insurance Company Ltd. Vs. Hansrajbhai Kodala, reported in 2001(4) JT page 477.

6. In the premises aforesaid, in view of the clear position of law laid down by the Supreme Court, the impugned judgement and award is required to be quashed and set aside. We hold and direct accordingly. This appeal is, therefore, allowed with no order as to costs.

7. It is clarified that the respondents-claimants are at liberty to pursue the main claim petition filed under section 166 of the Act and to obtain a judgement thereon on merits and in accordance with law under section 168 of the Act.

8. The appellant may apply to the Tribunal for refund of the amount deposited by it with the Tribunal. The Tribunal shall deal with such application, as and when made, in accordance with law.

9. The Tribunal shall proceed with the hearing of the main claim petition No.530/99 as expeditiously as possible and in consonance with the duration of its pendency and sequence of filing.
